P-O-R APPOINTEES NAMED

CHARLEY'S AUNT IS IN REHEARSAL

Rehearsal for this year's play Charley's Aunt began a week ago. Miss Hutchison is directing the popular play which inspired the Broadway musical hit, Where's Charley? The Lago production will be presented at the new Esso Club on March 31. There will be a matinee and an evening performance.

The action of the play occurs during commencement week at Oxford. The three main characters are two undergraduates, Jack Chesney (Emmette Jones) and Charles Wykeham (Kieth Work); Jack's Uncle, Lord Fancourt Babberly (Dean Work).

The boys' girlfriends are Amy Spettigue (Mary Jean Owen) and Kitty Verdun (Gloria Morris). Then there are Jack's father, Colonel Sir Francis Chesney (Chuck Wilson), and Steven Spettigue (Larry Morris) who is a solicitor.

Charley's aunt, Senora Donna Lucia D'Alvadores (Rose Ann Moyer) has come from Brazil with her ward, (Penny Richey), Lila Delahay an orphan to see her nephew.

There are three servants in this play: Farmer, played by John Stuart, Maud, who is played by Yvonne Hagendoorn, and Brassett, played by Dennis Hynd.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

This season's Basketball League consists of six teams with a Varsity player as coach. The teams are made up of basketball enthusiasts from grades seven through twelve. This results in more even teams and eliminates teams of big bruisers or tiny mites.

Staff changes and new appointments to the Pan-O-Ram Weekly have been made in accordance with the announced policy of giving a maximum of interested and capable students a chance to share in P-O-R activities.

The necessity for doing most P-O-R work after school means that a lively paper can be produced only by students willing to devote a part of their free time to the paper. Miss Stengel, P-O-R advisor, suggests that the paper might return to weekly publication, if the new appointees and previous staff members show a genuine, active interest in it.

The following students have been selected:

Chuck Wilson, Elizabeth DeWeese, Kathleen Hussey, Mary B. Spitzer, Polly Mings, Carleton Greene, Al Leak, Neil Carroll, Rose Ann Moyer, R. Borbonus Marion Fernando, and Nettie Gregersen.

Continuing on the staff are the following students who contributed steadily to the P-O-R last semester:

Birgitte Gregersen, Elvira Macrini, Warren Carroll, Janet Hoffman, Mildred Andersen, Florence Josephson, Bob Norcom, Ted Palant, Phyllis Taylor, Nancy Chippendale, John Borbonus.

Staff positions and duties of each P-O-R appointee will be determined at a meeting in Room 23 Monday. It is important that everyone attend.

R.C.A. AND CARIBE DEFEAT LAGO

The last two games played by the High School Varsity resulted in defeats, one by R. C. A. (27-22), and the other by Caribe (21-20). The last game with Caribe was the best game of the season despite the fact that High School lost. The same five played the whole game except for Carroll (Continued on page 3)

FROM THE GROUND TO YOU (DIRT)

Could it be that some people are actually cold in the indoor movies? How 'bout that Charlie? Won't a sweater do, Beverly?

P.T. and W.C. came to the parting of ways. But then, this is an old story.

Don Mar. seems to be hooked pretty well this time. Good fishing, Millie!

Don Cahill has a crush on a certain Spanish teacher. Don't fall too hard, Don!

Annie Jamieson and Martin Smith are making the rounds now-a-days. Parents can be a problem, can't they Martin?

Ginny Jones has a gleam in her eye for a tall, blond Jr. boy. But Gleb walks Marleton home. "a be it's closer than your house, Ginny.

Sally, give Dominic a break. Don't keep him dangling like that. Poor boy!

The Jr. Hi King of Hearts is finding a bit of competition in the Jack these days.

What's happening to the Berrisford-Koopman affair?

Kay N., why don't you give Russell B. a break one of these days?

Martha Sue Lloyd, you shouldn't do so much flirting with Robert Hodges.

It's too bad Mary E. Starub and Danny Jones broke up. They were such a cute twosome.

Patty P. seems to be going after Bobby Griffin again these days.

DANCING CLASS S

Dancing classes were started a few weeks ago and are now going full speed ahead. If the noise that emits from the grade school auditorium is any indication, everyone enjoys himself immensely here is a good deal of clapping and stamping.

The classes, held Tuesday evening, begin at 7:30 (promptly!). The community band also chose this night to rehearse and they like to compete to see who is the loudest—the band or the dancers.

Everyone is invited to attend these classes (grades 9-12) and join in the fun, the program includes waltzes, congas and fox trots.

Be sure and come!

ROVING REPORTER

Question:

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF LAGO'S SCHOOL SPIRIT?

BILL MOYER: What school spirit?!

MARY B. SPITZER: I haven't noticed any.

BILL MOORE: Awful.

BRENDA ENGLE: O.K.

KATHY HUSSEY: It isn't the hip! hip! hooray type.

BOBBY DREW: The teachers ruin it.

NOEL COAKLEY: It stinks.

STUART HAYES: If we work hard enough we'll get some.

MARY JEAN OWEN: Pretty low.

MISS STUART: There is a great deal of room for improvement. I'm convinced that our students of this year are depending upon each other to start the ball rolling but who is going to be the starter?

BOBBY GRIFFIN: Rather low and a lot of improvement could be made.

LAGOCIETY

Brother and sister reigned over the Valentine Dance held Feb. 11, when Emmett and Ginny Jones were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

The dance, sponsored by the Freshman class, was a huge success. The evening's entertainment featured Yvonne Hagendoorn and Annette Gregersen in a beautiful Spanish tap dance. Jim Rosborough put on a fine magic act. Donald Gray, master of ceremonies, presented Miss Hutchison with a corsage and bouquet from the class.

Records were well-chosen and decorations, good. Nice work, frosh!

INTRAMURALS (continued from page 1.)

Girls League Standing

	Won	Lost
Tornadoes	5	1
Snowbounds	4	2
Blizzards	2	4
Hurricanes	3	3
Cyclones	4	2
Cloudbursts	1	5

The "Cloudbursts" seem to be about as prominent as raindrops among the "Tornadoes", "Hurricanes", and "Cyclones".

Boys League Standing

	Won	Lost
Sharpshooters	5	1
Pace Setters	3	2
Dead Ends	2	3
Two Bits	3	2
Get Ups	1	4
Dead Eyes	1	4

For the sake of team morale it has been suggested that the "Dead Eyes" name be changed to just "Sleepy Eyes".

Millie Anderson gave a dinner party to celebrate her sixteenth birthday on February 10. Eighteen girls attended the spaghetti dinner. After the dinner most of the girls attended the basketball game.

Virginia Garrett and Mary Kidd gave a party last Saturday from 2:30 P.M. to 5:30 P.M.

Janet Hoffman is having a birthday dinner to celebrate her sixteenth birthday with some of her friends on Feb. 25.

The Sunday School Classes are having a Square Dance from 7:00 to 11:00 on Feb. 25. The dance will be held on the church patio.
