

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CARIBE NIGHT

Wednesday night was Caribe Night at the Lago court. The court was decorated with signs, and to make everything merrier, the Lago Community band was on hand to play during the quarters. A surprising display of marching was demonstrated by the cheerleaders. Terry Richey, as leader, seemed to have the situation well in hand.

The first game started off with a bang when the Lago girls took a four point lead. The Caribe girls came right back with two baskets which tied the score. The girls in red then made twenty-two more points, while the Caribe team scored only two, making the final score 26-6 in Lago's favor. Nancy (Eagle-Eye) Koopman had top basket honors with 10 points. Nettie Gregersen followed as a close second with 9.

Nancy Morris did an excellent job of leading the spectators in singing the school song and a few other songs. The Lago Community band also did a bang-up job of keeping everyone amused with their excellent playing between quarters and halves.

The second game between Caribe and the "Blue Boys" was just as close as the first. The score was nip and tuck until the third quarter when Caribe began to pull out in front. At the end of the third quarter the score was 18-17, Caribe's favor. Then in the last quarter, Caribe scored 15 points and Lago scored only 9, making the final score 33-26. Tinker Baggeley was high point man with seven points.

Many thanks to Coach Downey, Bob Borbonus, and Bob Griffin for getting the court ready for the occasion.

B. Borbonus

£ £ £ £

There will be a basketball game at the R.C.A. Club tonight between Lago Hi and St. Thomas.

The bus leaves the Jr. Esso at 6:30 sharp. Anyone who wants to come on the bus is invited.

£ £ £ £

CANTEEN CARDS ARE ON SALE

Canteen cards for the next three month period, March 1 to June 1, are now on sale. See Barbara Hellwig if you wish to buy one.

CAST OF "MIKADO" IS ANNOUNCED

The cast for the Mikado has finally been announced. The Mikado of Japan is still yet undecided; his son, Nanki-Poo, who is disguised as a wandering minstrel is Emmette Jones; Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner of Titipu is Ken Work. Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing, and Boop-Bo, the wards of Ko-Ko are played by Nancy Morris, Kathy Spitz, and Kenia Schwartz respectively. Yvonne Hagendoorn is Katisha, a middle aged woman in love with Nanki-Poo. The choruses are done by the High School Music Class

£ £ £

RING AROUND A SENIOR !

The seniors are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their rings sometime this month for only three months of the school year, can they be proud of them? Don't you think it would be better if the rings were ordered in the latter part of the junior year? That way, the rings could be a distinguishing mark of a senior for the whole of their last year!

After asking other people for their opinion, I found the answer a unanimous "yes"! So, come on kids, let's do something about it.

D. Learned

£ £ £ £

From JUNIOR to senior!

This article is from a representative of the senior class of 1952 directed at the Senior Class of 1951.

The main point of discussion is the article appearing in last week's P-O-R-W under sports. I thought the writing was all right but several words were very poorly chosen. I quote:

"Last Sunday Bill Moyer, Bob Drew, and all the rest of the little juniors caught....." Note that part "The little juniors (and if you look at the P-O-R-W you will see "juniors" is underlined). Also it goes on to mention that we made our biggest haul (I am also a goggle fisherman). I would like it made clear that two juniors caught considerably over half of the 27 pounds of fish caught that day. All four Juniors caught 21 out of 27 pounds of fish which leaves

3 pounds for each senior. I don't mean anything against the two seniors who were out with us (other than they are seniors) because they probably had a bad day. They are really average fishermen. I would like also to make it known that we Juniors are Mike Alemnay have been fishing for over a year and it was we who taught those seniors everything they know (my killer sentences!) (con't on page 2)

Have you ever stopped, listened, of taken a good look at the things that go on at LAGO. Our advice is don't, because looking at it from a purely scientific and detached point of view, the shock is atomic.

Take, for example, the Algebra II class. We've often noticed the definite tendency of the Juniors to resemble something that biologists tell us is extinct, but the animal-like antics and noises of this elite class while supposedly devouring the binomial theorem is amazing. Cat-calls and loud braying are not the signs of educated men. (women, either).

Lago, outside of China, seems to be the only place where magazines are read from back to front. We're thinking seriously of asking editors to place the anecdotes closer to the cover in an effort to curb this retarded tendency of LAGO Hi students.

Not to be outdone by Winston Churchill, LAGO has taken up writing history. However unlike Churchill and more like their ancient ancestors, they put down these words of wisdom on hard wood. Haven't you ever been writing feverishly (big exam) and then find your pencil suddenly refuses to proceed? Upon further inspection, you find it wedged in the historic message, W. X. / Y. Z.

Look around before it's too late! Anytime now, some great disaster may take place; LAGO students may become normal, and you'll have missed a lot of fun.

Katie Hussey

*****

Dear Pan-O-Ram Readers:

In answer to an article in last week's issue, just why do these high and mighty seniors have to have a special room in which "to talk things over"? Do they think that they are so much better than the rest of us common people, that they can't associate with us? I agree that the seniors should have some genuine respect, but let's not overdo it. Just think, you who are going to college next year will be the lowliest of freshmen! Ever think of that?

And in answer to another statement made in last week's issue, I don't believe very many high schools in the States have this arrangement. Thank heavens not all of the seniors believe in this silly idea!

Don't worry, you'll get your respect, but certainly not from people with whom you won't associate.

Just an underclassman

(Con'd from page 1)

That was the Sunday before last. Last Saturday we again broke our record. This time the seniors fared as well as can be expected. BUT, two seniors became seasick to the point of extreme nausea; So did a sophomore. We Juniors were appalled at the calmness of the water, and could not see how anyone could get sick.

But, basta! I think we JUNIORS have taken enough from those seniors, and now is a ripe time to strike back. S. Evans

SING A SONG !!

The other day as I was walking down the street, I met a songbird and he gave me some information concerning the 8th and 9th grades. This is how it went:

Beyond the Sea - Ginny Hussey and Robert Hodges

My Foolish Heart - Martha Sue Lloyd

I'm a Big Girl Now - Nancy MacEachern
Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer - LEO MINGUS

Patricia, My Darling - Patti Pakozdi

My Two Front Teeth - Bobby Borbonus

Beautiful Dreamer - Kay Norris

Walking the Floor over You - David DODGE

All Dressed Up with a Broken Heart - Brenda Engle

I Want a Girl - Ray Burson

Out of Love - Nancy Chippendale

I've Got the World (David B.) on a String
Mary E. Straub

Little Girl - Noel Cookley

You Are To Me Everything (Betty M.) - Bob Griffin

Let's Pick Up Where We Left Off --

Nancy Koopman & D. Jones
Me and My Gal - Beverly Brown/Bruce K.

*****

SOPHOMORE SCOOP

Say, Dean, make up your mind, will ya - is it Nettie or Gloria? Speaking of flirtations, Beth, how is your little conquest for Peter coming along? Has it paid off yet? And Al, will you stop messing up Patsy's hair during Biology? I'm sure she's tired of combing it all the time. That's no way to get attention. Dewey, why must you always try to sit near Gloria? You know she always moves! Oh yes, Donald, we saw that tack you put on Gracie's chair. That's not the way to get ahead! Hey, what's this about Sarah Ann? Seems like she's carrying a torch for S. N. And Mary, I'm really glad you've finally gotten over that terrific crush on Peter P. (???) By the way, is there any boy in the High School with shoulders like Robert Mitchum's? If so, Rosie Bad wouldn't mind falling on her face for him, would you kid? (Say, how about that, fellas?)

*****

ROVING REPORTER

What do you think of eating crackers in bed?

Sam: Capital idea, eh wot?

Louise: They itch.

Bill Moore: Hang, I don't know, don't ask me.

David Dodge: Silly.

Betty Mello: Too crumbly.

Joe Carroll: Anyone who does it is pretty stupid.

Miss Gallicani: Bad habit.

Mr. Leary: Darn annoying.

Miss Hutchinson: Do it all the time.

Miss Stengel: Delightful.

Bobby Baum: Crunchy, salty.

Sally Armstrong: I don't; I eat ice-cream.

Dewey Johnson: Just for the bolts.